Serious work actually takes place among our students. Workstudy; the favorite pastime of any student!

Homecoming

The Intramural all stars and the student faculty soccer game were among the weeks activities.

Preparing for the floats are Trisha Cunningham, Patty Leidy, Chuck Dorothy, Hedi McDonald and Duane Fitzpatrick.

Working hard on floats were Kyle Winn and Ann Barnett, as you can tell.

The Grand Prize Winners

The Art Club and the Science/Math Club tied for the Grand Prize float. The Art Club with "Star Wars," the Science/Math Club with the "The Wizard of Oz." Both were deserving of the honor.

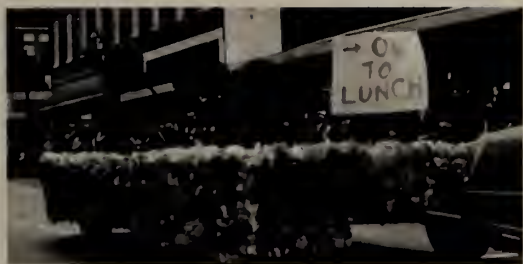

The Other Prize Winning Floats

WINNER of the "Best costume and design" award was Stapp Hall w/ "Gone With the Wind"

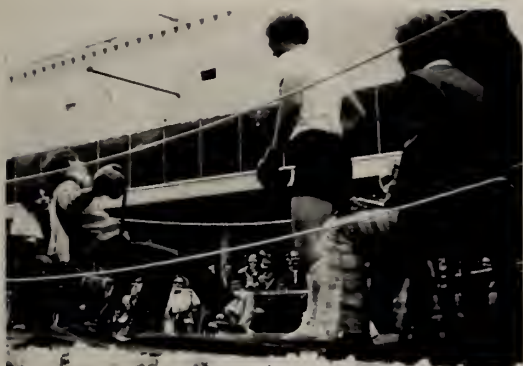

WINNER of the "Conformity to the theme and Originality" award was the Business and Economic Club's float w/ "Smokey and the Bandit".

North Hall, entering Homecoming festivities for the first time received Honorable Mention for their float "The Bad News Bears", and the Junior Class was mentioned for "Perils of Pauline."

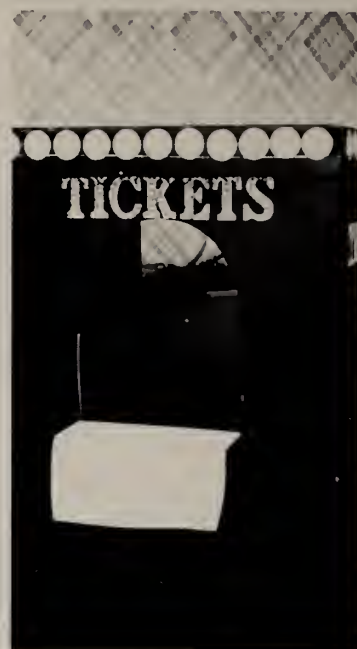

Some of the other floats entered in the parade were B.S.U.'s "Jaws I" and "Jaws II"; SNEA's "Grease"; Harlequins' "West Side Story"; Sophomore Class w/ "Pete's Dragon"; "Godfather"; Freshman Class w/ "Rocky"; "Chitty Chitty-Bang-Bang" and "All the President's Men".

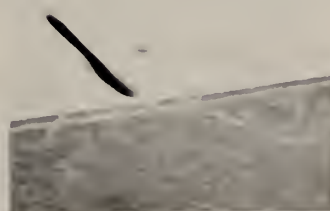

On Saturday, besides the parade, there was the Homecoming Banquet, held in the college cafeteria, and the pregame festivities with the Jazz Band and the awards for the floats being given.

Homecoming 1978

Basketball game

The students won over the alumni, as expected. The game was good and full of action; even the crowd seemed to enjoy it.

The editor would like to thank the following people who contributed pictures to the yearbook. Mark Hughes, Khamsing Norday, Bouchan Vongsurith, Brad Martin, Drew Tarter who spent many hours in the lab, and Rick Pinkley, and an extra bit of thanks to a good friend and most reluctant staff member—Eddie Wright. Also thanks goes to Donna Tucker for her work on the organizations section and her dedication when others seemed to lack it. Congratulations to each staff member for a job well done.

IN MEMORY

R.T. KIRBY

June 6, 1951-Feb. 28, 1979

John 14:3

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am,
there ye may be also.

... a final farewell to a good friend we knew and enjoyed for such a short time.
